LIVE WELL, LEARN WELL: AN INTERNATIONAL, INTER-SECTORAL DISCUSSION OF INCOME SECURITY AND LIFELONG LEARNING
EVENT AGENDA

	United Nations - Open Ended Working Group Side Event. April 15, 2019, 1:15 to 2:30. Conference Room 7, United Nations Headquarters, New York. East 45th and 1st Ave
1:15	Ms. Margaret Gillis, President, International Longevity Center Canada, Moderator. Jessica Sokolowski will act as a timekeeper
1:20	Ms. Catherine Boucher, Counsellor and Legal Adviser, Canadian Mission to the United Nations. Greetings and Comments on Canadian Programming on Income Security and Lifelong Learning.
1:25	Dr. Chris Simpson, A Past President Canadian Medical Association. "Determinants of Health: An Approach to Income Security and Lifelong Learning."
1:35	Ms. Idah Mukuka Nambeya, Senior Advisor to the Stephen Lewis Foundation, Grandmother to Grandmother Campaign. Grandmothers in Africa – Zambia. " African Perspectives on Lifelong Learning and Income Security."
1:45	Mr. Paul Hogan, Home Instead Senior Care Chairman and Founder, Member of World Economic Forum, Global Council on Aging and World Dementia Council. "A Business Approach to Income Security and Lifelong Learning."
1:55	Mr. Fabio Duran Valverde, Head, Public Finance, Actuarial and Statistics Unit, Social Protection Department, International Labour Organization, Geneva. "An International Perspective on Income Security."
2:05	Professor Jacques Fremont, President of the University of Ottawa, Canada. "A Human Rights Approach to Lifelong Learning and Income Security – The Role of Higher Education."
2:15	Professor Julie Byles, Leader, International Longevity Centre Australia, Global Chair in Responsive Transitions in Health and Aging at the University of Newcastle. Moderator, Question and Answer Period.
2:25	Professor Linda Garcia, Director LIFE Research Institute, Closing/Thank you
2:30	End of event