

*Bio Mr. Laurent DUPONT
Peace and Sport
CEO*

Graduated from a French business school, Laurent Dupont developed media and influence with the leading international sports announcers in Havas Sports & Entertainment. After 11 years as Director of the Amplification pole of the Group, he joined the Peace and Sport team based in Monaco in June 2013. His first missions were to develop partnerships and to coordinate the international communication of this Organization placed under the High Patronage of His Serene Highness Prince Albert II and chaired by Joël Bouzou.

Laurent Dupont became Managing Director of the Organization on February 2014 and he was appointed as CEO on March 2020. Since its creation in 2007, Peace and Sport has been promoting the building of peaceful, inclusive and equitable communities through the power of sport. This neutral organization takes concrete action to prove the federating, educational and social impact of sport through advocacy campaigns, sport diplomacy initiatives, replicable field programs and the development of Peace and Sport x My Coach application, aimed at providing teachers, educators and coaches in the world with evolutive, annual sports programs devoted to peace.

Peace and Sport collaborates with leading institutions and is part of the official consultative bodies of the United Nations, UNESCO, UNHCR and the Council of Europe. The Organisation works closely with more than 50 International Sports Federations and other institutional sports bodies, with the support of the Champions for Peace Club, which brings together more than 110 high-level athletes.
