Q1 Name of the organization:

Holocaust Community Services, CJE SeniorLife

Q2 The purpose of the organization:

Since 1999, Holocaust Community Services (HCS), a collaborative effort of Jewish Child and Family Services (JCFS), CJE SeniorLife and the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago, in partnership with HIAS Chicago, has helped ensure that the Chicago Holocaust survivor community and their families can continue to live independently and with dignity.

Q3 Information as to the programmes and activities of the organization in areas relevant to the human rights of older persons:

The average age of a survivor is 85-105, average 85. About 96% of survivors served by HCS are from the Former Soviet Union. The consequences of advanced aging are compounded by the physical and emotional horrors they endured during the war. As aging and frailty take their toll, the number of Holocaust survivors turning to community agencies has intensified.

HCS quintupled in clients served in past 5 years and now serves more than 1,800 survivors with monthly assistance, nearly 2,000 in total with other programming, referrals, socialization. About half that number receives ongoing financial help with food, medication, home care or emergency needs. HCS case managers also facilitate in-home support, including personal care and housekeeping services, kosher food delivery, and transportation services. In addition, training for professionals who work with survivors and their families is provided to address the growing needs of aging survivors and ensuring that the rights and livelihood security of aging survivors are protected.

Q4 Confirmation of the activities of the organization at the national, regional or international level:

Holocaust Survivors move from various parts of the world to Chicago, Illinois and are assisted by Holocaust Community Services to serve their growing needs. These survivors are drawn from different countries affected by the Holocaust including the former Soviet Union, Ukraine, Poland, Germany, etc...

Holocaust Community Services participates with various local, regional, national and international organizations to advocate for the rights of Survivors and better focus of their treatment needs.
