Programme for the Safeguarding and Promotion of Traditional Sports and Games

Provide a summary of the initiative, including a brief overview, proposed/actual outcomes and an assessment of any lessons learned and the way forward.

Several initiatives related to the Programme for the Safeguarding and Promotion of Traditional Sports and Games (TSG) are to be highlighted for 2018-2019.

- Reinforced cooperation and mobilization of the States members of the Group of Friends for UNESCO TSG and the Africa Group who conducted strategic events and supported key initiatives such as the development of an Atlas of African TSG.
- Strengthened global governance notably through the organization of the Fourth Collective Consultation on TSG (Tukey, 2018) where key stakeholders from public and non-governmental organizations addressed strategic challenges from an inter-disciplinary approach.
- Emphasized policy development, capacity building and ownership through the elaboration of the Policy Guidelines on the Safeguarding and Promotion of TSG. Decision taken to foster and align the development of the programme on the Safeguarding and Promotion of Traditional Sports and Games (TSG) with UNESCO’s Rules, Regulations and Practices, through the establishment of a formal UNESCO-endorsed entity.
- Research, data collection and knowledge sharing developed through the organization and participation of the Secretariat along with TSG experts to fora and round tables on TSG. Project to develop a digital Encyclopedia based on the 2003 World Sports Encyclopedia combined with initiatives conducted in FOs along with key stakeholders to develop local Atlas on TSG.
- Empowerment of communities and promotion through the patronage and support given to cultural and scientific events on TSG.
- Traditional Korean wrestling listed as Intangible Cultural Heritage following unprecedented merged application from both Koreas fostering peace development and intercultural dialogue.
