

Seventh Session of OEWG on Ageing 12-15 December 2016, UN Headquarters, New York

Application Form for Accreditation to the Open-ended Working Group on Ageing (OEWGA)

Accreditation is a one-time process by which not previously accredited non-governmental organizations become eligible to participate as observers in the Open-ended Working Group on Ageing. Accreditation is granted to organizations and not to individuals.

NGOs that have consultative status with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) or were accredited before are already accredited to the Open-ended Working Group on Ageing. All other NGOs wishing to participate in the Seventh Session of the OEWGA MUST apply for accreditation.

The Application form (in word document) should contain all the following information:

a. The purpose of the organization;

To provide Guardianship to any adult who needs protection and lacks capacity.

To organize and conduct seminars, workshops and study group on major issues of population aging.

Older people are disproportionately affected by the increase in natural disasters and climate change. New world Hope Organization (NWHO) advocates for their inclusion in disaster risk reduction and climate change adaptation debates and programs.

To organize Disaster Risk Management Training Program for older people.

To advocate for the protection of the basic human rights and dignity of older adults.

b. Information as to the programmes and activities of the organization in areas relevant to the human rights of older persons;

New World Hope Organization serves as legal Guardian for approximately 23 adults. Many of these individuals are victims of elder abuse, neglect, or exploitation. In its capacity as Guardian, New World Hope Organization works to ensure the physical and financial safety of each of its clients.

This entails managing each client's living situation, medical care, and taking appropriate legal action when needed to protect clients from past or potential abusers.

c. Confirmation of the activities of the organization at the national, regional or international level;

International level.

d. Copies of the annual or other reports of the organization with financial statements, and a list of financial sources and contributions, including governmental contributions;

Most of the New World Hope Organization (NWHO) activities are based on volunteerism. NWHO has set up a nationwide network of volunteers spread across the country. That's why we manage our nationwide activities with our limited financial resources.

Please find attached the word document file of Audit Report.

e. A list of members of the governing body of the organization and their countries of nationality;
