Q1 Name of the organization:

Spanish Confederation of Older People's Organizations (CEOMA)

Q2 The purpose of the organization:

As a reference organization on elderly, the Spanish Confederation of Older People's Organizations (CEOMA) is a nonprofit Organization created to defend the rights of older people. Currently CEOMA has confederated 26 older people's Organizations representing more than 350.000, and nearly 900 Associations.

KEYS:

CEOMA searches, analyses and tries to give an answer to the needs of older people, developing programmes which help the elderly to live their maturity with dignity and to help and increase their participation and integration in the society in all ways of life, without any kind of professional, sanitary, economic, political or social discrimination... Knowing the resources that they have, in common and global aspects: pensions, health, active ageing strategies, dependency, protection against abuse, housing, lifelong learning, leisure and culture...

CEOMA represents older people general interests through the cooperation and participation with experts, policy makers and civil society representatives in the appropriate offices and platforms. We set the lines of action with other organizations and private and public organisms with responsibilities and interests in these matters at local, regional, national and international levels.

Q3 Information as to the programmes and activities of the organization in areas relevant to the human rights of older persons:

The totality of CEOMA's activities are related to relevant areas to the human rights of older persons.
