

Launch of “ACTIVE AGEING: A Policy Framework in Response to the Longevity Revolution”

When? 15th of July, 2015, 1:15-2:30pm

Where? Conference Building (CB), Conference Room D

Obs.: Limited room capacity (50 persons) - "first come, first seated". Refreshments and sandwiches will be provided.

Welcome by Alexandre Kalache, President of ILC-Brazil and Co-President of the Global Alliance of International Longevity Centres

Opening remarks by HE Guillermo E. Rishchynski, Ambassador and Permanent Representative of the Permanent Mission of Canada to the United Nations

“The background of the Policy Framework” by Alexandre Kalache

“The main dimensions of Active Ageing” by Louise Plouffe, Director of Research at ILC-Canada and formerly Research Coordinator at ILC-Brazil

Discussants:

- Mona Kaidbey, Deputy Director of the Technical Division, UNFPA
- Mónica Roqué, National Director of the Policies for Older People, Argentina
- Jane Barratt, Secretary General of the International Federation on Ageing (IFA)
- Michael Hodin, Executive Director of the Global Coalition on Aging

Acknowledgements:

We are grateful for the support of the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), the Permanent Mission of Argentina, the Permanent Mission of Canada, the Global Coalition on Aging and the International Federation on Ageing (IFA). We would also like to acknowledge the following members of the Global Alliance of International Longevity Centres: ILC-Argentina, ILC-Australia, ILC-China, ILC-Czech Republic, ILC-Dominican Republic, ILC-France, ILC-India, ILC-Israel, ILC-Japan, ILC-Netherlands, ILC-Singapore, ILC-South Africa and ILC-United Kingdom. Special thanks go to ILC-Canada for their support towards this publication, to FAPERJ who funded the research and to AARP for its generous support towards this event.